That Saltair did not witness "warm" times last night was due entirely to the weather. All conditions, except the elements, were favorable to the enactment of such scenes as are usually witnessed on days given over to levity, boisterousness and general dou't care. A piercing cold wind from the northwest cooled the ardour of any bent on undue galety, and each returning train brought back to the city quite as many people as were carried outward on each trip.

Attracted by the implied understanding that everything at Saltair would be "wide open," thousands of people went out, but at no period were there more than, pernaps, one-third of the excursionists in the pavilion at the same time. The inducements, inviting as they were to people who want what is termed "a joily good time," irrespective of whether or not it may be the Sabbath day, were not strong enough to compel the majority to remain any great length of time. Those who stayed to come home on the later trains were for the most part young folks, with here and there appearing an older but not wiser head. To some communities the sight of open liquor houses on the Sabbath day, dispensing intoxicants without the least hindrance, would not seem unusual, but that such conditions should be permitted to exist in Salt Lake county would doubtless be wondered at by strangers who have heard better reports concerning this city and

As the phenomenal rain fall for the month of June goes on, there is inter est in various parts of the state as to which locality can boast of the heaviest fall of moisture. A letter from the government station at Gariand says that the precipitation for June up to the 17th inst, reached a total of 2.69 inches for the 17 days. The total reported at the weather station in Logan at 10 o'clock Saturday morning the 20th, was 2.47 inches. It is thought that Garland will lead all other points in the state for rain fall, and a comparison of figures from other districts would be interesting. The total precipitation in Salt Lake for the month of June up to noon today is 1.84 inches. est in various parts of the state as to

J. E. Langford, Jr., secretary and treasurer of the Saltair Beach company, in the absence of President Joseph Nelson and General Manager J. E. Theater—The closing performances of "The Merry Grafters" were given saturday afternoon and evening to good audiences, the matinee turn-out being especially large. The bright musical hits were repeated, and the fun making episodes created the usual amount of laughter. Mr. Orlob is now thinking of visiting the out-of-town points.

BICYCLE RACES.

Aside from the open saloon, the feature at Saltair yesterday most deplored by people who have the welfare of the community at heart was the bleycle meet. The venture was not a financial success, judging from the slim attendance, but whether the elements or indifference was responsible for the slim turnout was not apparent. Everybody will wish the bicycle races at Saltair success, but a majority of people will hope to see the gates closed on Sunday. Attempts to have bicycle races in the city on the Sabbath met with fallure, and predictions are freely made, even by friends of the sport, that conditions in the county will not prove more propitious.

The best there is at a resort is not meet for the indulgence of well meaning people, be they Christian or otherwise, and surely the line should be strictly drawn when liquor is dispensed, racing going on, skating rinks, dime theaters and other attractions running at full blast, and these were the exact conditions at Saltair yesterday. ## Arnold-Dixon Brothers are Doing "Coarse" Work Again

MR. LANGFORD INTERVIEWED.

The "fame" of the infamous Arnold-Dixon "brothers," fake spiritualists, or mediums, who worked their graft in Balt Lake for many years, continues to spread.

Chief Pitt is in receipt of a letter from J. E. Davidson, a citizen of Oakland. When an uncanny being appeared in the darkened room and began to converse with her, she became suspicious and seized the supposed visitor from the other world. The "spirit" proved to be one of the brothers who so far forgot his spiritualistic role as to attack the aged woman, dealing her several severe blows.

For this offense the fakers were arrested and Dixon worked their game in Salt Lake for a long time and swindled people out of thousands of dollars. They made money enough to build a handsome flat on Third South and Third East streets, where they held their meetings. They advertised extensively and cialmed to be able to bring back to this sphere the spirits of

HOW THE RIDERS RIDE. "NEWS" BICYCLE CHART.

The following form chart covers all races held so far this season upon the Sait Palace, Saltair and Ogden saucers. It will assist the bicycle fan in keeping a line on the various riders; the simplest possible method has been adopted. It is believed the plan of giving points as obtained from the positions made by the riders will be more satisfactory than keeping account of the rider's winnings. Winnings cannot be relied upon by seekers after a line on the riders, as purses are of all sizes, and what one rider might make in one special race would more than meet a whole week's regular purses. In this chart, the method of judging is as follows: First positions count 5 points each; seconds, 3; thirds, 2; and fourths, 1 point each.

Contest Being Waged Between Bransford and "Amercian" Leaders-It Amuses and Instructs.

4 HD VAIL AND CROSBY Fire Chief Charles T. Vail and his assistant chief, Captain Byron Crosby, will be dismissed "for the good of the service" to night at the meeting of the city council. James Devine, former chief, will be appointed to succeed Vail and will, himself select Crosby's successor. Though many times repeat ed by the "American" ring, declaration that Fire Chief C. T. Vail is a good fire chief and that he will stay in the department, in view of Saturday's action by Mayor Bransford Saturday's action by Mayor Bransford just prior to his departure for the west coast, will appear to all with little to warrant belief. Mayor Bransford was very kind to both men, for on Saturday he offered them a chance to resign. Both refused to do so. The mayor took the alternative afforded him and dictated a letter of removal 'for the good of the service" to his secretary and it will go before the council tonight. And it will be approved.

When the bond ordinance was passed, the mayor "traded" to Black and Wood and the approval will follow, just as the mayor's letter followed a cau-

Wood and the approval will follow, just as the mayor's letter followed a caucus of "American" patriots last Friday afternoon.

Of course, the naming of Crosby's successor will be regulated by the movement of some of the smaller levers in the "American" machine, but Devine will meet little trouble in that quarter, as the view now presents itself.

How serious is the fight now open-quarter, as the view now presents itself.

How serious is the fight now opened in the "American" party? The question is being asked around town by those interested in political events, and the conclusion is being reached that election time is surely coming by the signs of the times. Just as the "American" patriots had to relieve Sheets from his position after he was found out preceding a previous election, so now the pressure against Fire Chief Vail and the department's incompetence is being feit.

A formal charge is under investigation concerning both Chief Vail and Crosby. They are alleged to have received a $10 commission for purchasing a fire wagon from the Consolidated wagon and Machine Co., or at least to have attempted to receive the $10 each.

Grant Hampton, according to the Grant Hampton, according to the data brought out in an investigation by Mayor Bransford, appeared at the City and County building with a $20 check made out to the treasurer, stating that there had been an overcharge of $20 on a wagon sold to the fire department, which he was anxious to refund. It developed that a $20 check had been drawn in favor of J. D. Harrison, cashier, to be turned over to H. H. Peterson, salesman, and by him split up between Vail and Crosby for buying the wagon of that particular firm. Both the treasurer and salesman denied that any money had ever been turned over to Vall or Crosby. The check has not been produced in evidence.

VAIL'S APPOINTMENT. Grant Hampton, according to the VAIL'S APPOINTMENT.

The apearance of Vail at the head The apearance of Vail at the head of the department was a direct result of the Lippman policy of making the administration a party machine, and running the government strictly for party benefit, ignoring the public welfare. The immediate result was that the city had to begin to pay for the training of a number of new firealning of a number of new fire-while there were on the list of men, while there were on the list of discharged a large number of old men, whose training had already been paid whose training had already been paid for.

Mayor Bransford has wanted to get rid of Vail ever since the Redman fire became the first big toll to be paid by the people for the prevailing "American" policy, and he has been fought in his plan constantly by the "Inner Circle" with its big club methods.

Losing the fight at first, the mayor has now tried his power against that of the "inner circle" with the case of attempted graft to back him up. The question of whether the fire department should be run for the city or the party has long been prominent and the new appointee, James Devine, is an old fireman of long experience at the head of the department, and in under positions working up to this position. The first candidate of the fire insurance officials and of Mayor Bransford for the place was W. H. Bywater, and the campaign for his appointment to succeed Vail has been carried on since Jan. 1, under the slogan that fire protection and not politics was what was wanted of the fire department. Bywater however is now in England, and Devine is named at the final point in the game of "inner circle" vs. Mayor Bransford.

Bransford has been well hated by the Tribune for a long time. Whether the game of "inner circle" vs. Mayor Bransford.

Bransford has been well hated by the Tribune for a long time. Whether this action will result in the hatred breaking loose on the surface in an effort to undo Bransford with the party or will smoulder quietly on until an opportunity presents itself in convention to name a successor is one of the interesting questions growing out of the situation.

A clash over the "Americans only on guard" policy has been inevitable since the first attempt to build up an "inner circle," and it now seems to have reached a point of open warfare, with Bransford directly pitched against those who consider themselves the party chiefs and manipulators, among whom stand in the background "Sanpete" Armstrong and "Jerry" Darmer.

NOT A NEW PLAN. NOT A NEW PLAN.

NOT A NEW PLAN.

The proposed removal of Fire Chief Vali and Asst. Chief Crosby has been under consideration by Mayor Bransford for some time. It is stated on good authority that about 10 days ago he had a conversation with James Devine about matters pertaining to the city administration and particularly with reference to the fire department, and stated that he, the mayor, was anxhous about the first of the year to make a change in the fire department "for the good of the service."

Friday last the mayor again called upon Mr. Devine and stated, it is said, that he proposed to remove Vall and Crosby if they did not resign, and asked Mr. Devine if he would take the position. The latter replied that he had not sought it, but would accept if the mayor wanted him. The same day there was a caucus held at which the mayor, Mr. Devine and all the "American" members of the city council, with two exceptions, were present. The situation was thoroughly gone over and it was agreed that Devine would be appointed chief and that the council would confirm the appointment, at a meeting of the council fins evening. With this understanding Mayor Bransford sent the communication to tha council removing Chief Vall and another one appointing James Devine.

The latter served for more than 10 years as chief of the fire department. He was removed from office by former Mayor Morris and was succeeded by W. H. Bywater, who is now in Europe.

INSURANCE TANGLE

A. H. Godbe Says W. H. Tobin Misrep resented Policy Features.

A. H. Godbe has filed suit against M. Tobin, the Great Western Life Insurance company, and Malcolmn and Hughes in the Third district court, Hughes in the Third district court, seeking to have an insurance policy annulled which he claims was secured by misrepresentation of the agent, W. H. Tobin. The representation was made to him, Mr. Godbe alleges, that a $10,000 policy with the Great Western company would cost him but little over $3,000, and that it would be paid for in nine years, being a 20-rayment policy. nine years, being a 20-payment policy, and on the strength of these representations he says, he took a policy giving his note for $485,20 in payment giving his note for $485.20 in payment for the first year's premium. Upon receiving the policy from the company, plaintiff alleges that he found he would be compelled to pay for 20 years and that the total amount of payments would amount to over $7,000, and on this ground he asks judgment that the policy be annulled and that the company be compelled to cancel and return the note given for the first year's premium payment.

JERRY CHORN DISCHARGED.

JERRY CHORN DISCHARGED.

Jerry Chorn, the colored jockey who several months ago shot and seriously wounded Henry B. Staten, colored, during a row in a Commercial street gambling resort, will not have to answer to the charge of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder. The case was dismissed in Judge Diehl's court this morning on motion of the prosecution for the reason that Staten, the complaining witness, did not heed the commands of the court by summons to appear when the case was called for preliminary hearing. Instead, Staten has left the state and is without the jurisdiction of the court.

As it would be practically impossible to make a case against Chorn without the testimony of the injured man, there was nothing for the prosecution to do but dismiss the matter. It is generally understood that Chorn and Staten patched up their difficulties and Staten decided to leave the state and not prosecute his assailant.

LAND COMPANY SUED.

The Fitzgerald Bros.' Land company has brought suit in the Third district court against the Irrigated Lands company to recover $22,000 alleged to be due upon a contract of agreement by which plaintiff, as alleged in the complaint, was to be paid commission on sales of land and water belonging to defendant corporation. Sales were effected, according to the complaint, to the approximate amount of $100,000 for detendant by the plaintiff, and the commission upon this amount was, according to the agreement, to be $25,000; but plaintiff avers that only about $3,000 of this sum has been paid, and asks for judgment for the remaining unpaid amount, namely $22,000.

WANTS $20,000 DAMAGES.

The case of J. W. Cromeenes against the Salt Lake Route was placed on trial before Judge Ritchie's division of the Third district court this morning. Mr. Cromeenes, the plaintiff in the case, is the father of Charles Raymond Cromeenes, a 12-yearold lad who was run over and killed by a train -belonging to defendant at the crossing on Third West street between Sixth and Seventh South streets, on May 22, 1907, and he South streets, on May 22, 1907, and he is bringing suit against the railroad for $20,000 damages as a result of the boy's death.

The case was originally brought against the Salt Lake Route and the Oregon Short Line, but on June 9 the action was dismissed as to the Oregon Short Line, but on June 9 the action was dismissed as to the Oregon Short Line, it being discovered that the locomotive which ran over the boy belonged to the Salt Lake Route. The railroad company alleges that the accident was the result of the boy's own negligence, and claims that he stepped out upon the track in front of the train suddenly, and that the train crew did not have time to warn him by blowing a whistle before he was struck by the engine.
